

Resume

Prof. Dr. Dan KJ Vercammen

Professor Vercammen is an anthropologist-sinologist, a Chinese Martial Arts expert, a Taoist Doctor, Taoist Internal Alchemy expert, and an artist (painting, calligraphy, poetry, design). He has published more than 30 books and articles on Chinese culture.

1972-1978: Yoga practitioner

1975-present: Chinese Martial Arts practitioner (Southern Chinese Martial Arts, Internal Martial Arts, Shaolin, Traditional Weapons, ...)

1978-1982: studied Sinology and Anthropology @ Ghent University, Belgium

1985-1986: studied Classical Chinese Philosophy @ Shanghai Fudan

University; Chinese Internal Martial Arts @ Shanghai Sports University and Jingwu Athletic Association and Martial Arts, Taoist Alchemy, TCM and Taoist Medicine with private teachers

1985-1990: research assistant and teaching Chinese @ Ghent University

1985-present: anthropological participating fieldwork on Taoism, Taoist Medicine, Taoist Alchemy, Internal Martial Arts, and Chinese Fine Arts

1990: PhD on Internal Martial Arts, Qigong, and Internal Alchemy from Ghent University (summa cum laude)

1990-present: teaching @ China Arts College CAC and researching @ Taoist Alchemical Studies Center TASC, Antwerp, Belgium; lecturing @ universities, conferences, and institutes in China and the West

2022: elected Director of the World Council of Sinologists, Beijing

www.taoiststudies.org

www.7starsstudio.shop

fei@taoiststudies.org